

tea & liquor poured by aj lý: in a very humble manner

After meal, hdmns F gave a long pOn for which myang wai'd.

10 It was myang who first mentioned going to sùma: the priest
34 sicaj then asked hdmns F whether today would be a good day
hdmns F said yes

& mysrag said we should run & tell the hdmn

sicaj VI that after the priest, we would go to hdmn, then to the câwphí: z / gawcan /, then to hdmns F (cankaw), then to jot (p0:can)

3 While hdmns F giving pOn, his sidekick wanders in & interrupts hdmns F long enough to sit in his lap.

hod nam seems to begin more seriously today.

Pawn and cEn are wetting people, Mne gets drawn into it. When she is thoroughly wet, she suggests going over and wetting KONGSeng d, and sons. Pawn and cEn follow.

We splash water gaily and unceremoniously.

This leads to more splashing, next we turn to saw (W of saw) and from there the three of us, now joined by saw d/l, move from house to house, cEn carrying a bucket of water, occassionally stopping to refill it at wells.

We run excitedly from house to house.

7 Pour water down peoples backs , rubbing it into their back, occassionally murmuring words like khwamsuk, khwamsabaj, (though it is usually the old ladies as they retaliate and wet us who mutter this.)

P NEW YEAR

21

15 April 60 4 kham wanphajawa:n (8)

Houses that line and ⁺aw and cEn and saw d/l run to and wet the inhabitants during the afternoon are:

- 60 kOngsEngz (sons and khan only)
- saw=saw (women only)
- methaw cOj new house
- methaw O:n (squint eyes) and methaw jot(ca:j W) caught t at well in tha: compound.
- pOthaw ca:j (who is hammering on an anvil on his porch and doesnt retaliate. Merely continues to hammer.
- inE wen (and young men in her compound)

We run around shouting, laughing, sopping wet. There is no formality about this, it is no suma, merely high spirits and New Years fun.

At night, temple gong beaten again.
